

STEPUP

URPotential are a community interest organisation dedicated to helping people with lived experience, who have criminal convictions get back into work and lead fulfilling productive lives.

Our services empower individuals by supplying information, training, advice and support to overcome the stigma of having previous convictions. We offer one to one self assesment and action planning. We aim to build on the individuals motivation and confidence, and to help overcome any inhibitions.

Ask your work coach for more information.

- 1 to 1 Assessment
- Action Planning & Motivational Skills
- Barriers to Employment
- Disclosure Techniques & Letters
- Communication Skills
- Interview & Employability Skills
- IT & Computer Skills
- CV Checks
- Emotional Awareness within the Work Environment

